

'Salaam Aliyekom'

Following to the report of the respected Information (Intelligence) Minister about the threats regarding the upcoming elections next month, and the security measures required for averting a split in the regime with the aim of undermining the strength of the Leader – which is one of the main goals of the enemy (Letter number XXX is attached), bearing in mind the plots of 2009 and the fact that the elections is the most important issue on the agenda of the country at this time, the following has been decreed by His Eminence:

“ Be fully prepared to curtail any kind of disturbances or riots in the course of the presidential elections.”

The importance of full cooperation and coordination is highlighted. Please report immediately on the execution of the instructions and its results.

Wishing you great success.

Signed:

Mohammadi Golpayeghani
